Part II, Item 7
Purpose

The Mississippi AFL-CIO has several purposes.

Assisting affiliated local unions and councils with collective bargaining situations, unemployment and plant closings, collecting unemployment and workers compensation benefits for union members, conducting biannual convention of delegates.

Working for affiliated local unions in Mississippi Legislature on issues affecting their employment, workers' compensation, all areas of collective bargaining and matters concerning union membership in Mississippi.

Assisting in organizing the unorganized workers in the state of Mississippi.

Membership communications on political issues affecting their interest as members of organized labor, providing get-out-the-vote assistance on election days to union members.
